

Swachhta Prasar: Drawing competition for school children on 26 March, 2019

A drawing competition on the topic 'Swachhta' had organized on 26 March, 2019 in the Society Room of National Institute of Hydrology, Roorkee for various school children under Swachhta pakhwada-2019. This competition was organized in two categories such as Category– I for Class 3 to 5 and Category – II for Class 6 to 9. Various children (60 Nos) from different schools namely Montfort Senior secondary school, Greenway Public school, Divine school, St. Joseph Junior School, Children Home, Saraswati Vidhya Mandir, Roorkee participated in this program. Dr. Sharad Jain, Director, NIH educated children about the importance of cleanliness and water conservation. Dr. Parag Jain, Director, RIT, Roorkee and Dr. Ajanta Goswami, Asstt. Professor, IIT Roorkee graced the program and also judged the drawing competition. Prizes and certificates were distributed to the winners.